

Shaftsboro' is a working family owned farm overlooking the fuchsia valley of Lee with beautiful countryside views. Private parking and a relaxed atmosphere makes it an ideal location. Well behaved dogs are welcomed.

Lee Bay

Other attractions are:

- The three mile stretch of golden sands at Woolacombe, awarded a blue flag and famed for it's excellent surf. Woolacombe is flanked by two impressive headlands, Morte Point and Baggy Point with Lundy Island appearing high on the horizon.
- The Victorian town of Ilfracombe offers a good choice of shops, theatre, art gallery, museum, swimming pool and restaurants. Regular boat trips leave the harbour for both fishing and sightseeing.
- Tarka Trail cycle track.
- Horse riding.
- Falconry and sheepdog displays.
- Excellent and challenging golf courses.
